

City of Cambridge Annual Holocaust Commemoration

The City-wide Holocaust Remembrance Evening

"Shuttered Windows"

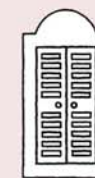

Wednesday, April 28 7- 8:30 PM

Temple Beth Shalom

8 Tremont St. Cambridge
(off Broadway near Central Square)

Music from the Cambridge Community Chorus, Workmen's Circle Chorus A Besere Velt & CRLS students
Readings from Cambridge middle school students
Remembrances and special remarks from

Auschwitz Holocaust survivor Dan Golomb

"First they came for" A Forum and Community Discussion.

Wednesday, May 19, 7:30-9:00 PM

Cambridge Senior Center, 806 Mass Ave.

Remembering the roots of Nazi persecution, this forum will look at policies in U.S. society which create fear, surveillance and threaten our liberties and provide time to discuss how we in Cambridge can support those facing discrimination and one another.

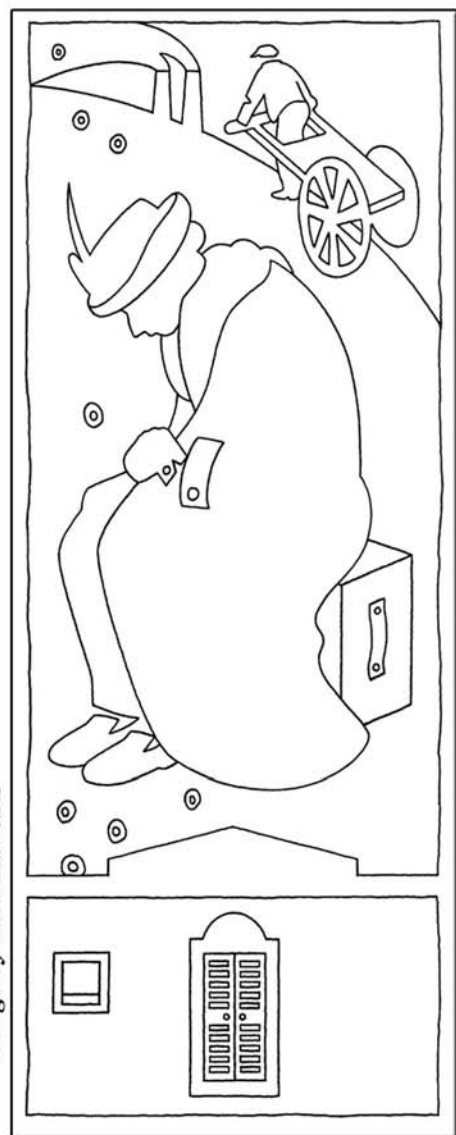

Free, Open to the Public and Handicapped-Accessible

For more information, call 617- 349-4694. TTY617-492-0235

The City of Cambridge does not discriminate on the basis of disability. The City will provide reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities upon request by April 15, 2004.

Holocaust Commemoration Evening sponsored by

Cambridge city departments Arts Council, Mayor Michael A. Sullivan's Office, Human Rights Commission, the Multicultural Committee of the department of Human Services Programs, the Peace Commission, Public Library, School Department, Vice-Mayor Marjorie Decker's office and community agencies including Cambridge Community Television, Congregation Eitz Chayim, Temple Beth Shalom of Cambridge and Rep. Alice Wolf.

"Our history is the most emphatic testimony that injustice to some spells doom for all. What is called for is not the silent sigh but a voice of moral compassion and indignation."

Abraham Joshua Heschel